EXPLANATORY NOTE

FIGHT AGAINST CORRUPTION COMMITMENTS / AUTHORIZATIONS

Following the adoption on 17 December 1997 of the OECD convention on combating bribery of foreign public officials in international business transactions, the law amending the criminal code and the code of criminal procedure for the application of these provisions was passed on June 30, 2000 and amended by the law of November 13, 2007 (law available on <https://www.legifrance.gouv.fr/>).

Pursuant to these legislative provisions:

- the Insured must declare that they themselves or any person acting on their behalf have not committed or will not commit, under the guaranteed export contract, acts of corruption prohibited by articles 435-3 and following of the Penal Code;
- any conviction of an Insured or any person acting on his behalf by a final court decision rendered based on the provisions of Articles 435-3 and following of the Criminal Code will result in the forfeiture of the rights conferred by the police under the guaranteed transaction and the compensation paid must be reimbursed. Bpifrance Assurance Export will be entitled to suspend compensation in the event of conviction of the Insured or any person acting on his behalf in the first instance;
- in addition, in the event of conviction of an Insured or any person acting on his behalf in first instance or by a final court decision, under the guaranteed transaction, any sum, including any exchange profit will be due at Bpifrance Assurance Export.

In addition, the OECD Council adopted on 13 March 2019 a Recommendation aimed at discouraging corruption in international transactions financed using officially supported export credits.

In this context, Bpifrance Assurance Export has put in place a system for preventive purposes, pursuant to which you are now asked to provide certain information (see section 4 of the guarantee application) but also to make certain commitments (see section 4 of the guarantee application). sections 5 and 6).
